

2023 12 6

22

---

1. The Commission has received information from the public that the applicant has been involved in a transaction involving the use of the Commission's funds for the purpose of the applicant's business. The Commission is concerned that the applicant may have used the Commission's funds for the purpose of the applicant's business, which is a breach of the Commission's rules. The Commission is therefore considering taking action against the applicant.