Shareholders are reminded that pursuant to the laws of the Cayman Islands, assuming the resolution on the Voluntary Liquidation is approved at the EGM, any transfer of Shares (without the sanction of the Liquidator) and any alteration in the status of any Shareholder after the EGM would be void.

Pursuant to Article 72 of the Company's articles of association, any resolution put to the vote of the Shareholders at a general meeting shall be decided on a poll except where the chairman of the EGM allows a resolution to be voted by a show of hands. Accordingly, each of the resolutions set out in the notice of EGM will be taken by way of poll. On a poll, every Shareholder present in person or by proxy or, in the case of a Shareholder being a corporation, by its duly authorized representative, shall have one vote for every fully paid Share of which he/she/it is the holder. A Shareholder entitled to more than one vote needs not to use all his/her/its votes or cast all the votes he/she/it uses in the same way.
